

Employment and Assistance
Appeal Tribunal British Columbia
Appeal Adjournment Request

Complete this form if you need more time to prepare for your hearing. You must complete this form and submit it to the Tribunal more than one business day before the hearing. The Tribunal will then ask the Ministry if they consent to the adjournment. The Tribunal Chair will make the final decision about whether there will be an adjournment. If an adjournment is requested within one business day of the hearing, the request must be made to the panel at the hearing and this form does not need to be completed.
